Manager commentary

» Global financial markets staged a broad rally in June, with equity indices across the world reaching new highs as investors welcomed signs of easing trade tensions and grew increasingly confident of impending interest rate cuts from the US Federal Reserve. A mid-month ceasefire between Israel and Iran also contributed to a more positive risk sentiment, though it sparked volatility in oil markets throughout the month. Global bonds were modestly positive, supported by a flight to safety during what was a volatile month. The US dollar kept weakening, which was particularly supportive for emerging market equities and bonds.

» Against this backdrop, we exited our allocation to MSCI World Minimum Volatility equity futures and reinvested that capital by increasing exposure to the Candriam Global High Yield strategy. The two investments are somewhat comparable, the former on the lower end of the equity risk spectrum, the latter on the higher end of corporate fixed income risk spectrum. Equities have performed strongly since the depth of the tariff crash and current valuations are looking somewhat fragile, so we thought it prudent to move towards a higher quality, lower volatility exposure such as Candriam's portfolio.
